On the night of the 8th June 18 some Punjabi sepoy's perpetrated a house dacoity in the village of Ibloor in the Bangalore Taluk. The dacoits entered into the house of the complainant Balagai Giriga by forcibly opening the front door, maltreated the bridal pair Munisami and Kaveri and robbed them of the jewels worn by them.

On the 11th June 18 I visited the scene of offence and on the 13th idem wrote a letter through the Deputy Commissioner to the Officer Commanding the Military Unit in which Punjabi sepoy's were employed detailing the facts of the offence and requested him to take necessary action to prevent a recurrence.

Subsequently I learnt from Mr. Coningham, the D. S. P. of C & M Station, that on receipt of the letter referred to above, Col. Turner in command of the Indian Cavalry Remount Training Depot caused a surprise roll call at about midnight that day and found some sepoy's absent. These men on being questioned gave varied statements which on enquiry by Mr. Smith, one of the Police Inspectors of the C & M Station, were ascertained to be false.

One Lal Badeen one of the sepoy's gave certain information regarding the offence and wanted 3 days' time to ascertain where the dacoited properties were.

On the 24th idem under the supervision of Lt. Cavell, several houses were searched in the lines. 60 gold beads forming part of the necklace, one pair of silver wristlets, 2 pieces of silver bangles and a silver gejje, pertaining to the dacoity case and a silver ring were found in the house of one Misre Khan, one of the sepoy's. These were identified by the bridal pair and other persons. A copy of the statement made by Lal Badeen is hereto attached for kind perusal. Misre Khan also gave a statement the day after the search before the Officer Commanding the Unit which cannot be credited as it was not tendered at once and is made to implicate the informant Lal Badeen.

A charge sheet against the marginally noted persons was

1. Misre Khan
2. Gulam Alvar Khan
3. Fazulla Khan
4. Fateh Khan
5. Nawab Khan
6. Mohamed Sheriff
7. Karimulla Khan

placed before the District Magistrate on the 7th instant, and he has made a reference to Government soliciting orders.
